

YES, put these items in the blue cart

- Newspaper (clean and dry)
- Cardboard (clean and dry)
- Magazines and catalogs
- Junk mail, envelopes, paper bags
- Phonebooks
- Wrapping paper
- Cereal boxes, paper towel and toilet paper rolls
- Disease-free containers-milk/juice cartons (caps on)
- Rigid (hard) plastics-water bottles, laundry detergent bottles, milk jugs, shampoo bottles, yogurt and sour cream containers (caps on)
- Glass jars and bottles (lids also, but separately)
- Aerosol cans (empty)
- Aluminum cans
- Paperback books

NO, do not put these in the blue cart

Put in the garbage

- Food waste
- Liquids
- *1-Plastic bags/ loose plastic film (shrink wrap, bubble wrap, newspaper bags)
- Food tainted items-paper towels, tissue, dirty paper plates
- Dirty pizza boxes
- Juice pouches
- Dishes-plates, pots and pans, drinking glassware
- *2-Styrofoam
- Hoses, rope, string, wire
- Tires
- Lumber, scrap metal

- Laundry baskets
- Clothing, shoes
- Carpets and textiles
- Hangers
- Lightbulbs
- *3-Batteries, electronics
- Hazardous waste-needles, medicine, diapers, chemicals
- Flammable items-propane tanks, helium tanks
- *4-Yard waste, plants
- Toys
- *5-Shredded paper
- Broken hardware, ceramics, trophies, plaques, construction debris
- Fast food containers, chip bags, candy wrappers
- Anything under 2" in diameter
- Plastic silverware
- Plastic drinking straws

*1-Plastic bags and loose plastic film can be brought to Publix, the CCCs, or the Land Fill for recycling

*2-Styrofoam egg cartons and clean meat trays can be brought to Publix for recycling

*2-White Styrofoam sheets can be brought to the Customer Convenience Centers or the Main County Landfill for recycling

*3-Batteries, electronics, propane tanks can be brought to the CCCs or the Land Fill

*4-Yard waste can be brought to the County Landfill

*5-Shredded paper can be brought to a shredding company