

Prix Fixe (pronounced pree feeks) menus are most often found in upscale fine dining restaurants. Also known as a limited menu, prix fixe menus are ideal for special occasions. When a restaurant specifies a prix fixe dinner, that means that it is offering a meal at a fixed price thus eliminating the surprise from the final check.

A prix fixe menu may include an appetizer, soup, salad, entrée, and dessert all for a set price per person. Or, it may be a more limited selection such as an appetizer, an entree, and a dessert—but you need at least the three basic courses. We offer a complimentary glass of house red or white wine with our Prix Fixe choice. Look for the red asterisk for Prix Fixe selections on our menu.

As a Summer Special, we offer our Prix Fixe menus are offered Tuesday through Saturday from 5:30 to 6:15. To take advantage of these dinner specials you must be seated by 6pm and have your order to the kitchen by 6:15. This special runs through August 18 of this year so come and enjoy our Prix Fixe Specials often.
